Do you want to grow your business so you earn more whilst spending less time working in it...?

“Tyrrell and Company Business Growth Event”

Through your relationship with Tyrrell and Company we invite you to an educational, motivational and entertaining seminar designed for business owners and leaders who are open to learning simple new ways to run their business and are passionate about improving their business.

The session, on Monday 14th July, will be run by Rich Wainwright, ActionCOACH UK's Growth Coach of the Year - come and learn what 10,000's of business owners are doing to make their profits grow, including;

- How to plan your businesses growth so it provides you with the time and money for the life of your dreams
- The 5 ways to multiply your business profits – and there are only 5 ways!
- How to create the time to grow your business
- How to get more customers to spend more and more often
- How to systemise your business for faster sustainable growth
- How to recruit, motivate and retain a winning team of employees
- The 8 areas of your business that potential purchasers will scrutinise when valuing your business and how to improve them now

You will leave knowing where the priorities are to for your business growth and with practical ready to implement ideas for them. Based on feedback from other sessions we have run, you will leave with a renewed energy and enthusiasm for your business!
